Dear Supplier,

Subject: Las Vegas Distribution Center Now Open

Our new Las Vegas, Nevada Distribution Center is now a reality. On February 4th, we started receiving product and will continue to receive the initial stocking orders through February 29th. On March 3rd, our first shipments will begin as we ramp up to serve all of our 55 stores in the Southwest Region.

The staff is on board and will continue on the job training during the month of February. Keith Souhrada and his management team have hired very capable people to operate our new warehouse in order to support Johnstone's Southwest customer base.

Please be sure Las Vegas is in your system as a ship to location for Johnstone Supply and note the new phone and fax numbers.
